CHATEL SUMMARY

 Re: Mrs. Shizuko (Seitaro) MATSUMURA
 Registration Number 03425

6545
 Re: Mrs. Ume (Matsujiro) MATSUMURA
 Registration Number 03438

On April 27, 1942, Mrs. Shizuko MATSUMURA declared a four-piece bedroom suite left in No. 1 House, Pacific Cannery, Steveston, B.C.

As in many other cases, the Custodian removed from the Pacific Cannery No. 1 to the Custodian's storage, under the name of Shizuko MATSUMURA, many articles not declared by her. These were removed on July 23, 1942. A list of the articles removed were then forwarded to Mrs. Shizuko MATSUMURA. After signing that the goods removed belonged to her, Mrs. Shizuko MATSUMURA, in addition to this, sent in a list of chattels, by letter, on December 16, 1942, showing many other articles which she claims to have left in the Cannery.

On her request, a White electric sewing machine was shipped to her but the Custodian found that this machine was moved from the Canadian Pacific No. 1 under the name of Toshio SANESHIMA, file no. 6548.

The Custodian sent Mrs. Shizuko MATSUMURA a copy of the goods taken out of Toshio SANESHIMA's house. In her letter of May 25, 1945, Mrs. Shizuko MATSUMURA selected items from Toshio SANESHIMA's list as belonging to her. Therefore the proceeds from the auction sales of one covered arm chair, one mantel clock and two children's baths were transferred to her account from SANESHIMA's. The balance of goods she claims could not be identified.

On request, the following articles were shipped Mrs. Shizuko MATSUMURA by the Custodian's office at Steveston:

- 1 White electric sewing machine
- 1 trunk
- box of tools
- 1 gramophone

As many articles removed under the name of SANESHIMA could not be identified, we are placing a list on this file of the articles placed into the Suspense account for future reference.

Mrs. Ume MATSUMURA, mother-in-law of Mrs. Shizuko MATSUMURA, lived in the same house as her son at the Pacific Coast Cannery. On evacuation, Mrs. Ume MATSUMURA declared:

- 1 sewing machine
- 1 sofa
- 4 boxes
- 1 table
- 1 cupboard
- 1 chest of drawers
- 12 chairs
- 1 box kitchen utensils.

This is practically a duplicate of what was later declared by her daughter-in-law. Although Mrs. Ume MATSUMURA had a few items removed from the house under her name (see schedule) we have transferred the proceeds from the mother's account to the daughter's-in-law account and in forwarding the proceeds we are making the cheque out in the joint names so that they may make their own arrangements as to the division of funds.

The above Summary is certified to be in accordance with the information on file.

 George Peters, Office of the Custodian.

Dear Sir:

Re: Claim of Uma Matsumura. Reg. No. 63438

Among the claims which have been forwarded to Lethbridge is the claim of Mrs. Uma Matsumura, widow. The claim concerns loss in respect to household goods.

One of Mrs. Matsumura's sons, Matsuo Matsumura, File 897, last November filed a claim listing what evidently are the same items as are listed in his mother's claim. The son later amended his claim omitting the items for which his mother is claiming. The valuations claimed for the same items in the two claims differ.

For comparison we give you below the valuations given by the two members of this family for the same goods.

Subject of Claim	Valuations of Mrs. Uma Matsumura	Valuations of Matsuo Matsumura
3 Stoves	$150.00	$75.00
Cabinets	35.00	25.00

20 Chairs	40.00	30.00
3 New Carpets	70.00	60.00 (1 carpet only)
1 New Bed	30.00	30.00
3 Beds	85.00	60.00
Gas Stove	19.00	15.00
Dresser	30.00	15.00
3 Mattresses	60.00	30.00
Kitchen Utensils	200.00	80.00
Clothing in Trunk	100.00	Not listed in son's claim

Except for the carpets and the clothing in trunk the two lists were exactly the same.

Dear Mr. Rice:

I have your letter of June 21st. There are several Matsumuras on my list. These appear on the Long List as Numbers 71, 72, 297, and 231. So far as my records appear, Matsuo Matsumura, # 71, has his own claim and only his file # 897 is involved. The cases of Hume Matsumura # 72 and Seitaro Matsumura # 297 appear to be interlocked, with the further interlocking of file 6553. These three Master files will be sent to you with the rest, for use as necessary. Yeikichi Matsumura, case 231, appears to stand alone.

Claim files for the first three have been sent to you and that for Yeikichi Matsumura will follow shortly.

This office will of course completely accord with you if you find it convenient to hear interlocked cases together. This sort of thing should fall within your orbit as counsel.

Yours very truly,

P. H. Russell.

Mrs. Shizuko MATSUMURA,

Coaldale, Alberta.

Dear Madam:

Enclosed you will find our cheque in the amount of $36.71 made out in the joint names of yourself and your mother-in-law, Mrs. Ume MATSUMURA.

As the list of articles declared by you and your mother-in-law is duplicated, we cannot identify the ownership in this office. We are therefore sending this cheque in your both names so that you will make your own arrangements as to its division.

Some items which you claim from Toshio MATSUMURA's house could not be identified by this office.

Kindly acknowledge receipt of this cheque.

Yours truly,

George Peters,
Office of the Custodian.

P. O. Box 50,
TURIN, Alta.

Dear Madam:

As requested in your letter of April 11th, 1945, we enclose for your information, lists of chattels removed by us from the Canadian Pacific House No. 1, in the names of Mrs. Ume Matsumura, Toshio Sameshima, and yourself. We are sending the list of chattels listed under Mr. Sameshima's name because we believe it includes many items belonging to your family, for instance, item 81 - one crated sewing machine, was identified as yours and shipped to you on Feb. 3rd, 1944.

We would be very glad if you could unscramble these lists and let us know what accounts should be credited with each item when sold.

We also enclose the original sales sheets of goods which have already been sold and the proceeds credited to your account and the account of Mrs. Ume Matsumura.

Regarding your bedroom suite you will note that three pieces have been sold, namely a chiffonier, vanity and bench, but not the bed.

We will appreciate hearing from you at your earliest convenience.

Yours truly,

Mrs. Ume MATSUMURA,
Registration No. 03438,
c/o J. Romanchuk,
TURIN, Alta.

Dear Madam:

We thank you for your letter of March 9th in answer to ours, which you state you received a few days ago. We do not know to which letter you refer as the last one on our file is dated July 17th, 1943 regarding an insurance policy. We did write to Mrs. Shizuke MATSUMURA on December 8th, 1944, regarding chattels. Would this be the letter to which you refer?

Answering the latter part of your letter we regret that we are unable to send you any money derived from the sale of chattels until the position is clarified. Some of your goods were apparently listed with those of Mr. Toshio SAMESHIMA and we are at present unable to identify which are yours. Next Mrs. Shizuke MATSUMURA on her J.P. form declares only a four piece bedroom suite yet we moved from Canadian Pacific Cannery house no. 1, in her name, a long list of goods, of which we sent her a copy on December 2nd, 1942. These she confirmed on December 16th, 1942, and added to it a lot more items.

On your J.P. form you declared a sewing machine, a sofa, four beds, a table, a cupboard, a chest of drawers, twelve chairs, and a box of kitchen utensils. The only items shown on the list of goods moved from Canadian Pacific Cannery house No. 1 in your name are, one child's crib, one wooden bed and spring, three iron beds and spring, and one sofa, of which only the last item has as yet been sold.

We offer one suggestion which might help to simplify matters. If you and your daughter-in-law were to send us a joint letter asking for the money derived from the sale of chattels belonging to both of you, no doubt we could send you at least the greater portion of it at once, but at the present these funds have been frozen.

Yours truly,

R. B. Macke

Miscellaneous Chattels - We agree with the first 4 columns under this heading but feel that the rate of 18.62% should be applied to $690.33 and not $602.00.
This makes a difference of $16.82 in the award which we trust you will be prepared to admit.

Miscellaneous Chattels - The only claim being made by this party is under this heading and her original claim was $742.00.

We approve of the award form right across the board but in addition to the settlement proposed, we would draw your attention to the fact that there are shown on the analysis form under the heading
"Total gross sales at auction" as credited to 6553 in respect to 6553 and 6545 - $165.90. It would seem that the award form covers $29.50 of this amount.

We should like to know if some award will be made with respect to the balance of $165.90.

IN THE MATTER OF THE CLAIM OF (MRS.) MIUME MATSUMURA.

PROCEEDINGS AT HEARING.

20 APPEARANCES:

G.E.A. REE, Esq., K.C.,

appearing for the Dominion Government.

W.S. RUSSELL, Esq.,

appearing for the Claimant.

MISS LILLIE THOMAS;

Secretary.

MRS. LUCIE HANDFORD,

Official Interpreter.

S.R. HOWARD, Esq.,

Official Reporter.

30

M. Matsumura,
In Chief.

THE SECRETARY: Case No. 692, Mrs. Mume Matsumura.

(MRS) MUME MATSUMURA, the claimant herein, being first duly sworn, testified through the interpreter as follows:

MR. RICE: You had better get her name correct. In one place it is Mume and in here it is Muma.

DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. RUSSELL:

Q What is your first name? A: Mume.

10 Q Mume? A: Yes, Mume.

MR. RUSSELL: Apparently it has been necessary to amend this claim downward from $849.00 to $749.00, as per the summary of evidence.

THE SUB-COMMISSIONER: Yes, all right.

MR. RUSSELL: Q: Mrs. Matsumura, you have seen this piece of paper before you, and you have signed it there (indicating), is that correct?

A Yes.

20 Q This is the summary of evidence in support of your claim? A: Yes.

Q It is correctly prepared? A: Yes.

Q And you believe it to be true to the best of your knowledge and belief? A: Yes.

Q You are familiar with its contents, the contents of it? A: Yes.

MR. RUSSELL: I will tender that as Exhibit 1.

(SUMMARY MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 1).

30 MR. RUSSELL: Q: Are these articles which you are claiming your own articles? A: Yes, they were mine.

3
M. Mutsumura,
In Chief.

Q They don't belong to anyone else?

A No.

Q No one else has any interest in them?

A No.

Q That is all

MR. RICE: I am submitting, your honour, that the chattels of the claimant were sold for their fair market value.

I am submitting that certain chattels of the claimant were stored and mixed with those of her daughter-in-law and her sons, and for that reason it has been difficult and almost impossible to segregate what belongs to the claimant and what belongs to other members of her family.

I submit that if there is any part of the claimant's claim that the Custodian is responsible for, or any articles, at least, that the claimant is claiming that the Custodian is responsible for, that the claim made to the same is exorbitant.

I wish to submit as an exhibit, your honour, a personal property claim, or, at least, an analysis of personal property claim.

(ANALYSIS MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 2).

CROSS EXAMINATION BY MR. RICE:

Q I show you a J.P. form (indicating), dated the 27th of April, 1942, and ask you if that is your signature on that form?

A: Yes.

Q That is a form you had completed?

A: Yes.

30

Q A J.P. form?

A: Yes.

M. Matsumura,
Cross-Exam.

MR. RICE: I submit that as an exhibit, your Honour.

(J.P. FORM MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 3).

MR. RICE: Q: The witness in the last preceding case is a son of yours, Matsuo Matsumura?

A Yes.

Q And he filed a claim of your goods originally, did he not? A: Yes.

Q And Seitare is a son of yours, is he not?

A He was my oldest son.

10 Q. He was your oldest son? A: Yes.

Q His file is No. 6544 and your file is No. 6545?

A Yes.

Q And you have a daughter-in-law, the wife of Seitare, named Shizuko Matsumura?

A Yes, she is Seitare's wife.

Q Seitare's wife? A: Yes.

Q Her file number is 6553.

For the purpose of the record, your Honour,
I might state that files 6544 and 6553, that is Seitare Matsumura and Shizuko Matsumura were dealt with by Mr. Turcotte in case No. 623. Mr. Turcotte's file number was T-28.

20

Q Who is Tashio Sameshima? A: She worked in the same cannery as I did.

Q But not related to you? A: No.

Q Did she live in your home? A: No.

Q Did she keep her household effects in your house at the time of evacuation?

A Yes, they were placed in the same house as mine.

30

Q Her chattels and effects were stored in your home?

M. Matsumura,
Cross-Exam.

A Yes.

Q Who owned the home, or was it rented?

A It belonged to the cannery.

Q And who rented it? Did you or your son Seitaro?

A No, we were paying no rent.

Q Well, did you and your son Seitaro live in the same house?

A: Yes.

Q Who else lived there besides you and your son Seitaro?
I take it Seitaro's wife, Mrs. Shizuko Matsumura?

10 A The other sons of mine lived in the same house with us.

Q Matsuo and who else?

A Yoikichi and Matsuo.

Q Well, did Yoikichi file a claim at all for any goods that were lost?

A: Yes.

Q He filed a claim, you say? A: Yes.

Q And his goods were left in the house that you were occupying along with other members of your family?

A Yes.

20 Q Did anybody else have goods in your home at the time you were evacuated?

A Just our things only.

Q Beg pardon? A: Just our things only, no one else's.

Q No one else? A: No.

Q Well, that is, there was yourself, your three sons and Toshio Samashima that all had goods and chattels in your house there?

A: Yes, they were all living in one house.

30 Q You were advised by the Custodian, were you not, that goods belonging to you and your daughter-in-law

N. Matsumura,
Cross-Exam.

Mrs. Shizuko Matsumura were sold together, and there was confusion because there was duplication in the list of effects?

A: Yes, I understood that.

Q And you were also told by the Custodian, were you not, that certain household effects were sold and credited to Tashio Sameshima?

A: No, I didn't hear that at all.

Q But you did know there was confusion over your property and that of your daughter-in-law, Mrs. Seitare Matsumura?

A: Yes, I understand that.

Q Did you or your daughter-in-law ever attempt to straighten your confusion, or attempt to straighten out the confusion by declaring what property belonged to each of you?

A: No.

Q Now, these values that you have given for your household furniture you swear are fair values?

A Yes.

Q Your son, in swearing to the value of the same property, had different values. I refer to three stoves. You value them at $150.00 and your son valued the same stoves at $75.00. Can you explain that?

A I hadn't heard of that. They are all my property.

Q Well, I will point out to you that your son valued the cabinets at $25.00 and you valued them at $35.00; 20 chairs your son values at $30.00 and you value them at $40.00; three new carpets you value at $70.00 -- by the way, what kind of carpets did you have on your place? Linoleum or congoium?

N. Mitsumura,
Cross Exam.

A Yes, they were linoleum, figured linoleum.

Q Figured linoleum? A: Yes.

Q How old were they? A: New ones.

They were quite new; we hadn't even unrolled the linoleum.

Q You hadn't unrolled it? A: No.

Q How long had you had it? A: We bought it the year we were evacuated. We hadn't even unrolled it. We had to use it, or had intended to use it in our son's house when he got married.

10

Q Just one? A: Three.

Q You had three that you hadn't unrolled?

A Yes, they were quite new, hadn't been unwrapped.

Q They wouldn't be quite new, they would be new or not at all if they hadn't been unwrapped, or did you buy them secondhand?

A A salesman came with the carpets and we just bought them; they were quite new.

Q You don't know whether they were new or secondhand?

20

A They were new ones.

Q And they weren't unwrapped, not one of them was unwrapped?

A: No. They were brand new and hadn't been unwrapped and hadn't been used at all.

Q They were brand new. What do you mean by telling me awhile ago that they were quite new?

THE SUB/COMMISSIONER: Oh, I think that was just a slip.

MR. RICE: Oh, perhaps. Well, your son valued one carpet at $60.00; you value three at $70.00. Your son valued the bed at $30.00; you valued it at $30.00.

30

Three beds were valued by your son as $30.00; you value

N. Matsumura,
Cross Exam.

Three beds were valued by your son at $60.00; you value them at $65.00. A gas stove was valued by your son at $15.00; you value it at $19.00. A dresser was valued by your son at $15.00; you value it at $30.00. The three mattresses were valued by your son at $30.00, and you value the same mattresses at $60.00. The trunk that you claim $100.00 for apparently was not included in your son's claim at all.

10 Q What was in the trunk that made it so valuable? What kind of clothing?

A It contained clothing, coats and suits and such articles.

Q Whose clothing? A: They belonged to my son and myself.

Q Well, how much was his clothing worth?

A They were or had been used but they were good articles.

Q I am asking how much your son's clothing was worth?

A Could I have that (indicating)? Could I have the question?

Q Yes, read the question, please.

20 BY THE REPORTER: "I am asking how much your son's clothing was worth?"

A I would estimate about $130.00.

MR. RICE: Q: Why did you put it down at $100.00?

A Oh, excuse me, I am wrong there.

Q. That is your answer to the question? I asked you what your son's clothing was worth and you say that you estimated it was worth $130.00?

A $130.00 worth of clothing in the trunk.

Q $130.00 worth of clothing in the trunk?

30 A Yes.

M. Matsumura,
Cross-Exam.
Re-Direct-

Q How much was your clothing worth?

A I estimate the total value at $135.00.

Q Well, if you don't want to answer my question you don't have to. There is one other item, your son valued your kitchen utensils at $80.00 and you valued them at $200.00 in your claim, but you have now amended it to $105.00. All right.

THE SUB-COMMISSIONER: Q: Were all the members of this household using the same furniture and utensils?

10 A Yes.

Q And there were only three stoves altogether? These three stoves were used by them all?

A We had three heaters and one kitchen stove.

THE SUB-COMMISSIONER: Any questions, Mr. Russell.

RE DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. RUSSELL:

Q Mrs. Matsumura, I believe you said that the trunk contained $135.00 worth of clothes, is that correct?

A Yes, I valued the whole thing at about $135.00.

20 Q And your own clothing in the trunk was valued at $100.00, is that correct?

A I must have had about $30.00 of my own clothing, but they were fairly old things.

Q Well, in your personal property claim you say "clothing in trunk" and you are claiming $100.00. Now, is that for your own clothing, or where did you get the figure $100.00?

MR. RICE: She has already answered your question.

A Yes, that is correct.

30 MR. RUSSELL: Q: Well, which is correct? She has told us $30.00, and she said $100.00. How much is the

M. Mutsumura,
Re-Direct.

clothing worth that was in her trunk of her own?

A The value of my own clothing is approximately $30.00.

Q $30.00? A: Yes, but the trunk contained several of my sons' clothing.

Q Well, are you making a claim on behalf of your son as well?

A: Yes, I am claiming on his behalf as well. I was responsible for them because I had to put, or I had put the articles into the trunk.

10 Q Which son is this? That is, the other clothing, which son is it? A: All the three of them.

THE SUB-COMMISSIONER: They made separate claims also, did they not?

MR. RICE: Yes.

MR. RUSSELL: Some of them did.

MR. RICE: All three of them.

THE SUB-COMMISSIONER: Now, are three separate claims for these goods that are listed today that are claimed for by this claimant?

20 MR. RUSSELL: I couldn't tell you that.

THE SUB-COMMISSIONER: Apparently there are three claims for the same set of furniture and utensils, is that not correct?

MR. RUSSELL: I understood there were two.

MR. RICE: I think the son Matsue, your honour, filed the claim for the same articles that this claimant is now claiming, but he has abandoned the claim.

MR. RUSSELL: He claimed on behalf of his mother.

30 MR. RICE: Yes, he claimed on behalf of his mother. But

M. Matsumura,
Discussion.

there seems to be a mix-up in more ways than one in the Matsumura family, and the Custodian is still trying to straighten matters up. That is, this claimant's daughter-in-law is claiming the same items, and they were sold together, and the Custodian tried to separate the items in the family, but it has been impossible for him to do so just through lack of co-operation of this claimant and the others.

10 MR. RUSSELL: Well, as far as this claimant is concerned, these articles are hers, and she is apparently claiming $30.00 for her own clothing, and the balance of the $70.00 for her three sons.

THE SUB-COMMISSIONER: Yes, all right. Is that all, Mr. Russell?

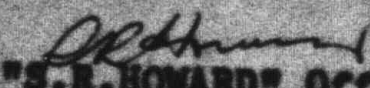

MR. RUSSELL: Yes, your Honour.

THE SUB-COMMISSIONER: That is all, thank you.
