Dear Sir

Security Commission write to you about month ago. Asking you to send me a 2 double beds. But you write back to them that you can't find the beds.

I think those are left by the window side about in the middle.

Could you go to Celtic Cannery & ask this white man name (Harold Black) who put my bed in Celtic Cannery School when we were evacuated on May 7.

He was living in one of the house but I don't know which house he's in now.

Will you please do this favor for me. I need it very badly because we are going in way of self supporting.

The colour of beds are one white steel & other brown steel one spring is old and also old style.

Other one is new it is kind of wide strip like

Please look it over again for me. I will be waiting for your answer.

Yours sincerely
Mrs. J. Nagata

MEMORANDUM

From the desk of Mr. G. E. Fisher

To: Mr. G. E. Fisher, Vancouver, B. C.

Subject: WETA News. Ref. No. 6574

Your Custodian Release dated October 15, for the above person. Attached is original bill of lading for a trunk and a chest for this party, however, they were marked S. Smith and not John Smith but were all we could find. Please verify ownership.

The freight charges $4.00 $ 5.00.
The cartage charge $ 2.00, which you are to collect there and turn over to the Treasury, advising.

Subject: WETA News. Ref. No. 6575

Your Custodian Release dated October 15, for the above person. We could only find a box marked No. 7 and a paper box marked No. 8 of the articles desired and they are included in attached bill of lading. You should arrange to have this box where the expense above mentioned with Mr. Fisher.

We are unable to find the trunk or sewing machine. The coal stove was sold, sometime ago, on authority of the Custodian.

For your information when taking releases for Seattle Cannery would say these goods are very poorly packed. The school house is piled full and if we could get a large number of orders from this place, it would leave room for us to pile the balance of the stuff in order so that it could be found.

Mr. Claxton of the Vancouver Cannery is in charge at this place.
