Dear Madam:

I would refer you to my July 30th and August 10th, letters, in which I requested that you forward the War Savings Certificates belonging to the above noted internee to this office for safe keeping.

Under the Consolidated Regulations Respecting Trading with the Enemy (1939), it is necessary that all securities belonging to an internee be forwarded to the Custodian's Office for safe keeping and I would, therefore, appreciate it if you would let me have these War Savings Certificates by return mail.

Yours truly,

(Miss F. Carroll)
