Additional Information: Neither Tsurumatsu KAMEI nor Kiyoto TATEYAMA declared ownership of this vessel when registering with the Custodian. The Registrar of Shipping at Prince Rupert reported that this boat was owned by I. Kamei and K. Tateyama, and letters to these two men produced a reply from Tateyama to the effect that he owned this boat, and gave a description and information as to where the boat had been left, all of which matched the information we had about the boat. Kamei did not reply to our letter.

Dear Sir:-

Thank you for your letter of January 11th confirming that you have no further chattels in the restricted area and asking for payment of the $20.00 held to your credit. Our records show that Mrs. Michi Moriyama claims you owe her $42.52 and we cannot, therefore, make any payment to you until this matter has been settled. Kindly write promptly and let us know if you agree to our paying her this amount.

Yours truly,

Dear Sir:

We are holding a small sum of money which was obtained from the sale of an old fishing vessel. We believe this boat may have at one time been your property.

Would you kindly let us know if you owned an old fishing boat? If, by any chance, this boat was sold by you, give us the name of the man to whom you sold her. If the boat was not sold by you, let us know where you left her. Give us a description of the boat. If you owned only a share in this boat, let us know the name of the other owner.

Yours very truly,

F. Matheson,
Specified Articles Department.

Dear Sir:

Tokugoro SATO has filed a claim with us against you for $150.00 representing money loaned to you. Will you kindly advise us if this claim is correct, and if so, how you propose to pay same.

A claim has also been made against you by Mrs. Michi MORIYAMA for $42.52. We would also appreciate hearing from you in regard to this.

Yours truly,

Dear Sir:

Re: Finances.

We are in receipt of your letter of the 9th instant and thank you for the information contained therein with regard to the ownership of your old boat.

Our own records were not conclusive on this point but Mr. Tsurumatsu KAMEI'S failure to reply to questions led us to the conclusion that you must have been the owner at date of sale, and we therefore remitted you the net proceeds.

We would appreciate having our cheque returned to us to enable us to make the necessary corrections, and we enclose a stamped addressed envelope for your convenience in replying.
