GENERAL SUMMARY

File No. 7142

7th August, 1946.

Re: Ito IMADA (Mrs. Kaichi) - Reg. No. 13673

The above Japanese declared no assets or liabilities when registering with this office. However her daughter, Mrs. Hayden, called at this office with a letter from her mother, asking that we make payment to Mrs. Hayden of $41.00 for wages due her from Mr. William Jensen. This sum had been credited to Mrs. IMADA's husband's account, but as it appeared from his file that these funds were at least partly due her, the $41.00 were paid to Mrs. Hayden from her father's account.

This file needs no further administration and may now be closed.

The above summary is certified to be in accordance with the information on file.

I would also like to know what became of my camera which was handed in to Custodian
Office by Mrs. A. E. Choll, # 546376, 5476175 X I have two numbers each different which were written in the letter to me from Custodian so one of them must be right. Will you please give it to my sister, Mrs. M. Hayden, who is in charge of this letter. I can't find film & I know it will never be returned to

Re: Mr. & Mrs. Kaichi IMADA
Toshio IMADA
Yoshiki IMADA

Mrs. Hayden, address 342 Alexander St., daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kaichi Imada and married to a white man, called on February 10th with:

(1) A letter from Mrs. Kaichi Imada asking for payment to Mrs. Hayden of $41.00 wages due from Jensen, tenant of her and her husband's property in Haney.
This is actually credited to the husband's account, but should, I consider, be disbursed to Mrs. Hayden and a requisition is attached. It appears from the files that this payment was at least partly due to Mrs. Kaichi Imada for work on the strawberry farm.

(2) (Part of the same letter) A request that we hand the camera of Toshio Imada to Mrs. Hayden. I propose to do this (the camera is in my drawer having been handed to this office by Mr. Boothe) and shall obtain a receipt from Mrs. Hayden.

(3) Letter from Yoshiki Imada asking about Workmen's Compensation due to him. This I shall answer direct.

Finally, Mrs. Hayden raised some question about rents due from her father's farm and this will be explained to her when she calls to pick up the camera.
