GENERAL SUMMARY

File No. 7146

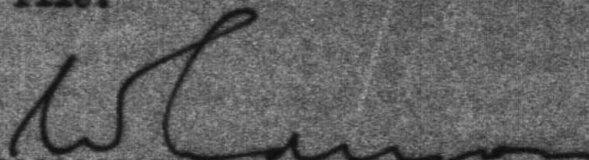

8th August, 1946.

Re: Masu MIYASAKA - Reg. No. 01164

The above Japanese declared no assets or liabilities when registering with this office, but a 3-piece chesterfield suite was found to be stored in her name at Crone's Storage, although this suite had been declared by Masu MIYASAKA's father under File No. 3702. At her request, Crone's sold the suite for $50.00. This sum after deducting $4.75 for storage charges accruing to the date of sale, was sent to us, and upon receiving a letter from Masu MIYASAKA's father that the money was to go to her, it was remitted.

No further administration is necessary on this file and it may now be closed.

The above summary is certified to be in accordance with the information on file.

Dear Madam:

We have heard from your father under date of April 11th requesting that the proceeds of sale of the family chesterfield be sent to you. We are accordingly enclosing herewith our cheque for $45.25, calculated as per ours of March 31st. This leaves no balance in your account and seems to close all transactions that have to be made on your behalf by the Custodian, but leaves outstanding for your father the matter of some furniture declared as left at Honey. We have not yet checked this.

Yours truly,

c/o A. H. Paige,

Dear Madam:-

We hear from Messrs. Crone Storage Co. that at your request they have sold your chesterfield suite. They received $50.00 from which they deducted accrued storage charges of $4.75 and have sent us the balance of $45.25 which we have credited to your account.

Actually, this chesterfield suite was registered by your father, but Messrs. Crone Storage Co. tell us that all their dealings have been with you. As we believe you will by now have joined your parents, we believe there will be no objection to our sending the proceeds to you if you require them. To have everything perfectly clear, however, you might get your father to sign any letter you write to us asking us to remit to you this money.

Yours truly,
