Dear Madam:

We received your letter of the 15th May, requesting funds of your father's sent to you jointly in the names of your father, your mother and yourself.

Please be advised that without specific authority of your father, we are unable to do this, and we are therefore forwarding funds to him direct, in his own name.

Yours truly,

W.E. Anderson,
Office of the Custodian.

The Custodian's Office,
 Department of the Secretary of State of Canada
 Vancouver, B.C.

Dear Sir:

Due to my father, Kunikazu Shinohara's illness we are in great need of money. Please kindly let me know approximately the amount of money still in the hands of the Custodian from the sale of our house and property. We would appreciate very much if you can send us the money at your earliest convenience as we are in great need of it. Since it is doubtful whether father may be able to work any more, please send the money in three persons name: Kunikazu, Registration # 08154, Machi (wife) Registration # 08153, and Chiyo (daughter) Shinohara, Registration # 12488.
