Dear Sirs:

Re: Yutaka NISHIYAMA, Reg. #09469,
Deceased - Our file #4588.

We acknowledge with thanks your letter of April 21, 1947, enclosing Certified Copy of Grant of Probate, together with discharge under Dominion of Canada Succession Duty Act. We do not appear, however, to have received a Succession Duty Release from the Province of British Columbia. Since the asset which we are holding is in this Province, a Release for British Columbia will be required, on receipt of which we will be pleased to pay the claim of the Department of Labour as requested by you and forward the balance to the Administrator.

Yours very truly,

AGM/AC

Dear Sirs:

Re: Yutaka James NIIBUYAMA, Deceased.

We have your letter of January 16, advising that you are acting for the representatives of the estate of the above Japanese person.

According to our file on this man, he owned a one-third interest in a parcel of land which was sold, by special arrangement, to the Director, Veterans Land Act, as at January 1, 1943. Cash proceeds from this source remaining in his account at the time of his death on December 30, 1945, were $604.08. In his declaration to the Custodian on April 21, 1942, this man declared that he held thirteen $8.00 War Savings Certificates in his own possession. He declared also that he had delivered a 1932 Chevrolet Coach to the Fogg Motor Company, New Westminster, for sale for $205.00, net. We do not know whether this car was sold according to instructions as no funds from this source have passed through our hands, neither did we bring the War Savings Certificates under our control. No other assets belonging to this man, in the Protected Area of British Columbia, have been brought to the notice of the Custodian.

A Notice of Death, sent to this office by the Department of Labour, indicates that they will probably be submitting an account for funeral expenses which is, usually, in these cases, about $80.00. Our file indicates no unsettled claims against the deceased.

When an Administrator is appointed, we will be pleased to transfer the funds at credit to him upon presentation of a Certified copy of his Appointment. Before distribution is made to the heirs, we request that we be informed of the names of the beneficiaries in order that we may advise whether we wish the funds payable to them to be transmitted through this office.

Yours truly,

A. G. McArthur,
Office of the Custodian.

P.S. Since writing this letter this account has been credited with $5.00 being the amount of our cheque dated December 17th returned uncashed. The present credit is therefore $609.08.
