Dear Madam:

Re: Life Insurance

We have received today a letter dated May 25th signed by W. Montgomery, who gives his or her address as Vancouver, B. C. This letter intimates that we are to be requested to look after certain life insurance premiums for you and indicates that you have made arrangements for us to pay same.

This is the first that we have heard in connection with this matter. We do not definitely know what life insurance policy is referred to nor have we heard from you directly or through the Life Insurance Company in this regard. You might, please, drop us a line and explain to us what it is all about.

I might add that there is no money standing to your credit with this office, and unless there are funds here, of course, we can not advance money to pay life insurance premiums for you. However, a letter direct from you will probably explain the whole matter.

Yours truly,

S. M. Gibson,
