Dear Sir:

Re: MARUYAMA, Tsuruyo

Replying to your letter of the 27th instant, the Queensboro United Church is a dwelling house rented to a white tenant, with several rooms being used for storage of Japanese effects. As it would take the services of at least two swappers to remove enough furniture to get at the boilers now asked for by the above, we do not think the expense is justified at present.

Yours truly,

R. B. Mackenzie

school books asked for were evidently shipped by Mr McWilliam. See letter 9/2/45

Re: MARUYAMA, Tsuruyo #08645 Kaslo

Attached is Custodian Release for kitchen utensils for above from the Queensboro United Church in New Westminster. When we attempted to make shipment of this yesterday along with Mr. Mackenzie same could not be located. We shipped some school books to this person from the same place last December. Should these goods be located later on and placed where they can be picked up without any delay we would consider shipping.
