Re: Mrs. Tane SAKIYAMA
Tadashi ARAKI

It seems quite clear that the claim of the B. C. Telephone Company of $4.05 cannot refer to Tadashi Araki and it has accordingly been removed and placed on his mother's file 7700, now known as Mrs. Tane Sakiyama. From the B. C. Telephone Company's letter of September 19th, 1942, now on file 7287 but also to be moved to file 7700, it appears that service was contracted for on October 2nd, 1940, at 116 Main Street at which time Tadashi Araki was most probably living at Woodfibre. He was evacuated on May 5th, 1942, having lived during his sojourn in Vancouver between the date of leaving Woodfibre and evacuation upcountry, at 641 Powell Street and, therefore, could not have been using the telephone which was disconnected on May 31st, 1942.

Mr. Spain's memorandum of August 8th, 1944, on file 7287, referring to effects at 641 Powell Street, the property of Tadashi Araki, does not seem to cover everything and a further investigation is being made. see file 7287

Mrs. Tane Sakiyama's things at 116 Main Street were subsequently sold except some dishes moved to 245 Powell Street, in the care of the Canada Mio Co. Ltd., as per additional registration of August 6th, 1942. This is also being attended to.

Dear Sirs:-

Re: Mrs. Tane SAKIYAMA--Reg. #06948
Itaro SAKIYAMA-----Reg. #04188

In answer to your enquiry of April 18th, the husband declared that he was "retired" and had no assets. His wife ran a small restaurant at 116 Main Street on rented premises but declared that she had disposed of all the equipment except some Japanese dishes which are now in course of investigation. For all practical purposes, therefore, the Custodian holds no assets for this couple.

Yours truly,
