Dear Sir:

We have just received a letter from Mr. Gibson of the Custodian concerning our Prudential Policies. First of all I would like to have the children's name straightened out. I asked for this correction before but so far it seems to have been neglected. In case anything should happen to them, I like to have their names correct to avoid any last minute confusion

#391827201 Ruth Keiko SHIMIZU
#392032103 Daniel Kazuo SHIMIZU
KAZUO not "R"

Furthermore, I am widow now and if I remember correctly, one of the children's beneficiary is in my deceased husband's name — RINZO SHIMIZU. If leaving the name as it is should make any difference, I also would appreciate that correction.

As to the annual payment of premiums, before we sign our names on the attached forms from the Custodian, we would appreciate knowing the premiums for each individual policies separately. We are informed only as to the total amount of $81.47

Kindly send us your full explanation at your earliest opportunity as we intend to begin on yearly basis from March. Thank you.

Further to our letter of January 16th I wish to advise that we have received word from the Prudential Insurance Company in a letter dated January 31st, a copy of which we are attaching hereto for your information.

We are also attaching the forms referred to in the Prudential letter for signature. For your convenience I have numbered the forms in red, 1, 2, and 3. Form No. 1 is to be signed by Ayako SHIMIZU; Form No. 2 is to be signed by Sada OHISHI; and Form No. 3 is to be signed by Ayako SHIMIZU. On No. 3 Form the signature must be witnessed by someone outside of the immediate family.

When these forms have been signed kindly send them back here as soon as possible so that we can arrange to send a cheque for $61.47 to pay the annual premium as you have requested.

I might mention that the Joint-Account No. 7715-7716 has at present a credit balance of $20.40, which is insufficient of course to meet this requested payment. Account No. 7715, Sada OHISHI, has a credit balance of $1,244.88 and account No. 7716, Eijiro OHISHI, has a credit balance of $1,063.15. Please advise us to which account you wish to have this payment made.

We have received a letter from the Prudential Insurance Company of America dated November 13th a copy of which I am attaching hereto.

From information on file I gather that these four above mentioned policies have formerly been maintained by the payment of premiums through the office of A. N. MacIntosh, Limited. As he no longer has funds belonging to you it is impossible for him to carry on of course, and we take for granted that you wish to maintain this insurance.

As these policies are getting very close to the date on which they will lapse, we are taking it upon ourselves to forward sufficient premium to pay each policy to the end of December. The amount necessary to cover for the next eight weeks on the two weekly policies (#391827201 and #392032103); and to cover for October, November and December on the two monthly policies (#D11448036 and #M6378152) is $19.42, which amount we are today forwarding to the Insurance Company and charging same to your joint account in this office.

We would like please, a letter by return mail, advising us that you agree with this action taken and giving us further instructions in connection with future payments on these life insurance policies. Please see that the letter is signed by you both.

Yours truly,
