Re: Jintaro YAMASAKI #11354

Dear Sir:

The above passed away at Sandon on October 18th, 1943. It has now come to light that he turned over to a Mr. T. ISHII 9 War Savings Certificates. We are attaching translation of the "will" left by the deceased. The original of this will is now in our possession, but our Supervisor at Tashme promised to return same to Mr. ISHII. It would appear that this is hardly a proper will and it is possible that these War Savings Certificates should be turned over to you.

Please advise.

Yours truly,

Re: Estate of Jintaro YAMASAKI, Dec'd,
Registration No. 11354

Dear Sirs:

We are in receipt of your letter of the 23rd instant, enclosing translation of the will left by the deceased. Kindly have the original Will translated by some Japanese in Tashme and have him certify same as being a true and correct translation. At the same time, his signature should be witnessed by two other persons. The translation, thus made, should be forwarded to this office, together with the nine War Savings Certificates.

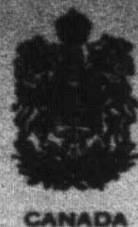

In view of the fact that the deceased was a Japanese National, having a wife in Japan who would be entitled to any assets, we believe the funds derived from said Certificates should be applied on your account for funeral expenses.

The Will, in this case, would appear to be invalid as there are no witnesses to the signature of the deceased.

Dear Mr. Peters:

Re: Teiichi ISHII, and the Estate of Jintaro YAMASAKI.

I have your letter of May 7th and have to advise you that the War Savings Certificates mentioned were forwarded to the Custodian as indicated in Mr. Hartley's letter of January 31, 1946. These were cashed in by the Custodian and the proceeds in the sum of $39.35 were credited to the Estate of Jintaro Yamasaki, Deceased. Yamasaki's file indicated a doctor's bill of $6.50 and a claim for $80.00 for funeral costs from the Department of Labour.

The doctor's bill being withdrawn, the full sum was sent to the Department of Labour on April 18, 1946 to apply on the funeral account.

Since the Estate of Yamasaki included no assets other than these War Savings Certificates, the question of the validity of the will was not raised although of course the document presented by Teiichi Ishii is not a valid will.

Yours truly,

A. G. McArthur,
Administration Department.
