(Attention Mr. Green)

Dear Sir:-

I have received a letter from my father TATSUZO NISHIDA, (Reg. No. 09007) who resides in Kaslo, stating that he had previously requested for the following articles under the care of the Custodian:-

- 2 boxes of kitchen utensils
- 1 box of gramophone records
- 1 violin case

These articles, I am informed, are stored at Furuya warehouse, 992 Powell St., Vancouver.

You have informed my father of employing a few men to locate these articles, but I regret that it is infeasible for my father to employ these men due to the unpleasant pecuniary circumstances.

However, I am capable of identifying these articles. Therefore if it is permissible and convenient to you I shall gladly give assistance in identifying the aforementioned articles. If this suggestion seems propitious to you, please inform me of your decision immediately. Your letter shall be shown to the doctor-in-charge of this hospital and I am certain that he shall grant permission of leave to identify the requested articles. Thank you.

Gratefully yours,

T. Nishida
