Mr. & Mrs. Jinsaburo KAWASAKI,
Reg. Nos. 03204 & 03205,
Karlo, B. C.

Dear Sir & Madam:

Attached to this letter are statements of your accounts showing the credit balances with the Custodian of $7.54 in the personal account of Jinsaburo KAWASAKI, and $37.47 in the joint account of Tami and Jinsaburo KAWASAKI.

While Jinsaburo KAWASAKI declared that he had no property whatsoever in the Protected Area of British Columbia, certain effects tagged with his name were found in the Buddhist Temple in New Westminster. In accordance with the Government's policy of liquidation, these goods were sold at public auction for the net sum of $7.54 as shown on the attached statement of his account.

The file of Jinsaburo KAWASAKI indicates that the sum of $2.70, being 1½ wage deductions for the first six months of 1941 refunded by the Provincial Collector, was paid to Jinsaburo KAWASAKI through this office on January 20th, 1944.

Tami KAWASAKI also declared that she had no property whatsoever in the Protected Area of British Columbia, but, certain other goods were found in the Buddhist Temple in New Westminster tagged "KAWASAKI". The saleable articles were sold at public auction and the net proceeds of $37.47 were credited jointly to Tami and Jinsaburo KAWASAKI as indicated on the attached statement.

It would appear that we have accounted for all the property of every kind left by you in the Protected Area which vested in the Custodian, and in order that you may confirm this we enclose a stamped addressed envelope for convenience in replying.

Please have your reply signed by both Tami and Jinsaburo KAWASAKI.

Yours truly,

Dear Sir:

Referring to your letter of February 15th, 1946, we find on investigation that the stored clothing was in such poor shape and moth eaten that it was abandoned. The dishes and contents of the wooden box have been sold at auction since we wrote you. The rest of your small personal articles have been combined in one package and we doubt if they would be worthy of shipping. The cost of freight and cartage we approximate at $5.00.

The balance of funds at the credit of Mrs. Tami KAWASAKI and yourself on the Custodian's book is $45.01. This represents the proceeds from the sale of your effects.

Yours truly,

Dear Sir:

In removing Japanese chattels from the Buddhist Temple, New Westminster, for sale by auction, we found a large number of effects with the name, "J. Kawasaki". We are unable to identify the owner of these goods and are wondering if they belong to you. Reference to your file does not show that you made any declaration of chattels. We shall be very glad if you will advise us whether you did own effects stored in the Temple, and if so, what they consisted of.
