Dear Madam:

We enclose herewith Custodian cheques in the sum of $29.64.
As this is your total credit with this office we are now closing your file.

Your file has been reviewed and it is noted that when you made your declaration to the Custodian on May 7th, 1942, you declared chattels at 161 West 6th Avenue, Vancouver. Chattels found and identified as belonging to you were sold at auction for the net sum of $4.23, and this sum credited to your account with this office.

The radio which you surrendered to the Royal Canadian Mounted Police was handed over by them to the Custodian and sold at auction for the net sum of $27.17 and this sum credited to your account with this office.

As requested in your letter received in this office on September 13th, 1946, we have remitted a cheque in the sum of $1.76 to the B. C. Electric Railway Co. Ltd. in payment of their claim filed against your husband.

Dear Madam:

We acknowledge with thanks receipt of your letter of the 30th ultise enclosing radio receipt.

With the purpose of clearing and closing both your file and the file of your husband, we wish to advise that there is an outstanding account in the sum of $1.76 filed against your husband by the B. C. Electric Railway Company Ltd. As he has not remitted us the money to pay this account and there are no funds to his credit with this office, it occurs to us that you may wish to have this account paid from funds standing to your credit with the Custodian. Will you kindly let us know your wishes in this matter as soon as possible.
