RE: Guns

Dear Sir:

We have your undated letter with reference to your guns and we return herewith the letter of September 28th, 1945, received by you from the Office of the Chief Constable, Vancouver.

If you wish to dispose of the guns, you should carry out the suggestion already conveyed to you in the letter from the Chief Constable. If you had addressed Superintendent Fripps, Officer Commanding, "E" Division, R.C.M.P. as recommended in the first instance, you would have clarified the issue by this time.

We have no interest in firearms as they did not come under the control of the Custodian.
