Dear Sir,

In reply to your letter of November 13th 1942,
I find your statement correct. As far as my books are concerned, I believe they are in Miss Margaret Mc Suffer's care.

As for my typewriter I picked it up in Kingston where my brother had it with him.
I have the typewriter in Montreal now.

To my knowledge, I believe I have no other property or possessions remaining in Vancouver.
Thanking you very kindly, I remain

Yours truly,
George S. Yamashita

Dear Sir:

In your registration with the Custodian you declared one Remington Typewriter in care of Miss Margaret McDuffee. With the purpose of offering protection to your personal property our representative visited this lady at 3125 W. 2nd Avenue, Vancouver, and was there informed that your brother had taken this typewriter to Kingston, Ont. where he is attending college. We presume that your University Books are still in care of Miss McDuffee, and we will have her confirmation of this in due course. In the meantime we assume that you have no other personal property remaining in the restricted area of British Columbia requiring our protection. If this is correct, we would ask you to kindly sign and return the attached copy of this letter for our record. Your prompt reply will be appreciated.

Yours truly,
