Dear Sir:

In reply to your letter regarding the Singer Machine Co claim against me I would like to state that this claim is not correct.

I contracted to purchase a sewing machine on the installment plan sometime in September, 1941. This was cancelled in April 1942 with mutual understanding, so the machine was returned to that company. Therefore I have no obligation to pay the unpaid portion, amount stated 104.<sup>00</sup>

To prove this, please communicate with Kenji Iwii, agent at that time of the connection.

Yours truly
Mrs. Takeko Goto

"I contracted to purchase a sewing machine on the instalment plan sometime in September, 1941. This was cancelled in April 1942 with mutual understanding, so the machine was returned to that Company. Therefore I have no obligation to pay the unpaid portion, amount stated $104.00.

"To prove this, please communicate with Kenji Hori, agent at that time of this connection."

Evidently she wishes you to repossess this machine. If this is satisfactory to you the Custodian has no objection. Kindly advise us at your earliest convenience and in your reply please state that all claims in connection with this machine, against Mrs. Banjiro Goto, will be withdrawn on repossession by you.
