Mrs. A. E. Loiselie,
2327 Oxford Street,
Vancouver, B. C.

Dear Madam:-

Re: Catalogue No. 161
2327 Oxford Street

We understand that Mr. Moore has come to a new lease agreement with you. While that is in effect and in the absence of our wishing to make any arrangements to the contrary, it would be in order for you to continue using the Japanese' furniture included in your original lease. Would you, however, please be sure to let us know if you contemplate vacating the place in order that we may then arrange to remove the effects. We are enclosing a list of those shown by our records to be in the lease except the bath and hot water tank which, of course, belong to the house. We should be very much obliged if you would confirm that our enclosure is in order and that you will let us know when and if you vacate the premises.

Yours truly,

H. F. Green

Re: Tojiro TAKENAKA
2327 Oxford St.

In removing the chattels from the above address:-

1. Pine Wood Table. This table was very large. It had been built in the basement and could not be removed through the basement door without destroying its value. This article was allowed to remain.

2. Tables were of such poor quality that they were abandoned as they had no value.

Dear Sirs:

Re: Chattels at 27 Oxford Street
Vancouver, B. C.

We understand that you have cancelled the present lease on the premises at 27 Oxford Street and it occurs to us that this might be a good time to remove the effects included in the lease other than those improperly included such as the hot-water tank and bath tub.

Would you, therefore, kindly let us know when your present tenant will be leaving the premises in order that we may make the necessary arrangements with him.

Yours truly,

H. F. Green,

Re: Mr. & Mrs. Tokujiro TAKENAKA

Please refer to the "JP" declaration on these two files and note the following comments.

(1) The effects left with the new tenant, Mrs. Loiselie, as declared by Mrs. Takenaka on her file, check exactly with those included in the Lease of 2327 Oxford Street on the husband's file and should therefore satisfactorily be covered.

(2) Items at 215 E. Cordova. I believe you have a list of the Japanese who have things stored at this place and that everything so left is perfectly safe.

Let's follow thing

(3) Refrigerator left with Johnston's National Storage. Would you please send out Form 14 for this.

(4) Dog left with Mrs. Eno. I do not think we need follow this up as it is presumably of sentimental value only and if Mrs. Eno was willing to take it at all, she will doubtless look after it properly.
