Dear Sir:-

In answer to yours of January 13th, we were preparing to send you this money when we noticed that there are one or two queries we should like to make about your property declared to the Custodian.

We see that you have left a piano in Mr. Gus Herman's house at Ocean Falls. Please advise if this is still there as we should like to have his formal acknowledgement for our files.

You also make a reference to furniture and effects left at 1403 Dunsmuir Street, Mission. Were these taken with you or did you make other arrangements?

Please let us know about these as soon as possible and we shall then have pleasure in applying for refund to you of the amount due.

Yours truly,

Re: Isao KIMURA
1430 Dunsmuir Avenue, Mission

There are no chattels declared on this property although there is an eight roomed house on it. However, as Isao Kimura signed a release on December 3rd, 1943 for utensils left in the N. W. corner room upstairs it is assumed that there were effects left.

Ernest Benbow was the first tenant and farm implements and live stock were included in his lease.
