Dear Madam:-

We have recently received from Mrs. Hannah Inouye an application for the shipment of two sewing machines to Slocan City from their place of storage at Duncan. One of these apparently belongs to you although you did not declare it to the Custodian when you registered in March last year. Unless we hear from you to the contrary, we shall assume that you have authorized the application for shipment of your machine and we need concern ourselves with it no further.

Yours truly,
