Dear Madam:

re: Accounts Receivable

You filed with this office a list of twenty-five Accounts Receivable at the time you registered with the Custodian. Notices were forwarded to all except one, whom we could not locate and whom we reported to you.

Some time ago we advised you that many of the notices were returned marked "uncalled for". Some of them were not returned, and these we are now notifying again. If these notices do not bring any results we shall be compelled to discontinue further action. Should we receive any payments we shall so advise you.

re: $27.82 - B.C. Purchasers' Co-op. Ass'n

This claim has been on file against you but does not appear to have been brought to your attention. Please let us know if it is correct, and if so what the prospects are of payment at this time. This is the only claim on file against you.

We shall be obliged for an early reply to this letter.

Yours truly,

B. R. Dusenbury,
Claims Department.

Dear Madam:-

You will recall declaring considerable belongings in your possession which you intended to store in the B. C. Purchaser's Warehouse, 573 Hastings St., on evacuation. The contents of this building have either been all sold or shipped but your name does not appear on the list supplied to us by the Association Solicitors, Messrs. Norris and MacLennan. We therefore assume that you made other arrangements and there is nothing that the Custodian need do on your behalf.

Yours truly,

Dear Madam:

re: Accounts Receivable

We have written to all on the list of debtors left with us by you, except S. Tabuchi whom we have advised you we could not locate.

The only answers we have received are the returned notices sent out without having been delivered. The Post Office reports variously as "Removed" "Not known here" "No such address", etc. Of course in such cases we can do nothing further without additional information from you, which no doubt you will be unable to give.

A little later we shall advise those who have not replied, or where the notices have not been returned to us.

If you can suggest anything that will assist us in securing better results we shall be glad to have your comments.

Yours truly,

A. McAlister,
Claims Department.
