Mr. Brown,
The Land Registry Office,
Vancouver, B. C.

Dear Sir:

Thank you for your telephone conversation of yesterday regarding the property belonging to your sister, situated on the south east corner of Powell and Gore St. We understood you to say that this property had been occupied by a Mr. M. Kawasaki, that the property is padlocked at the present time and that you desire to know the reason why it had been padlocked.

Our records indicate that a Mr. Mohachi Kawasaki, a store keeper, aged 46, police registration No. 05436 has been living at 300 Powell Street, Vancouver. At the time this Mr. Mohachi Kawasaki registered with us on May 18th he declared that he had no assets whatsoever and he also declared that he had no liabilities. The Custodian's office has therefore taken no steps in the case of Mr. Mohachi Kawasaki.

It occurs to us that Mr. Mohachi Kawasaki at the time he left the property belonging to your sister may have padlocked the house and turned the key over to the Agent to whom he had been paying rentals. In any case it was not padlocked by the Custodian's office.

Trusting that this information will prove of some assistance to you and your sister,

Yours truly,

R. P. Alexander,
Assistant Manager.
