Vancouver, B. C.

Dear Sir:

We acknowledge with thanks your letter of December 30, 1941.

Following your information of the letter, we like to express that the Academy of Domestic Arts has no relation whatsoever, with business or any such commercial relations with individuals or firms of enemy background including our enemy country of Japan.

The said Academy of Domestic Arts is a registered school under the Societies Act at Victoria, B. C. by the Registrar of Companies.
The school has been limited to teaching the art of sewing and needlecraft and has no other business dealings with outside business firms.

The property we are now occupying is owned by S. Matsusaki, the Secretary-Treasurer of this Society and the said person is a naturalized citizen of the country since 1911.

If any further information is necessary, we shall be pleased to supply them at your request.

Very truly yours,

The Academy of Domestic Arts

S. Matsusaki
Secretary-Treasurer.
