Dear Sir:      Re: Jihei Yamabe, Dec'd, Cert. #B1017.

On May 2nd we forwarded you a cheque for $1000.00 made out in your favour in respect to Mrs. Suzu Yamabe, beneficiary of the Policy. We asked you to have the beneficiary sign the receipt for same, but all we have to date is an interim receipt signed by Mr. C. H. Reed, Cashier. This signature might answer the purpose, but legally speaking we think we are entitled to a receipt signed by the beneficiary. Your responsibility in these matters may be limited, in any case we should like to know how we are protected after a full settlement has been made.

I might add we received a letter to-day enquiring as to why settlement had not been made. Please have this attended to on receipt of this letter.

Yours truly,

CANADIAN MUTUAL BENEFIT ASSOCIATION
