PERSONAL PROPERTY SUMMARY

File No. 9952

Dec. 2/46

RE: Fukami (Mrs. Tomiso) ONODERA
Reg. No. 06441

This file reveals that Mrs. ONODERA owned no real property in any protected area of B.C. and did not carry any Fire insurance.

CHATELS: Mrs. ONODERA made her declaration to the Custodian on May 23/42 and was evacuated on Oct. 15/42.

On Oct. 13/42 she made a supplementary declaration stating that only the goods she listed at that date were now left in her home. These are shown on Chattel Schedule on file. These are all accounted for by sale with the exception of three pieces of glass which were discarded.

On Aug. 2/44 Mr. Coust asked the Accounting Dept. to transfer proceeds from sale of chattels to that date from the account of Mrs. ONODERA to the account of her husband, File 1344. Since that date three other sales have taken place and the net proceeds in the sum of $2.72 credited to the account of Mrs. ONODERA. We are therefore transferring this amount as well so that proceeds from sale of all chattels will be on the one file. This leaves no credit in the account of Mrs. ONODERA.

The chattels belonging to Mr. Fumio YAMAMOTO which Mrs. ONODERA said were in her home have been accounted for. They were sold at auction and the proceeds credited to the account of Mr. YAMAMOTO.

No property interests other than those mentioned above are found on this file.

The above summary is certified to be in accordance with the information on file.

To: FILES

From: Mr. Green

Re: Mr. & Mrs. Tomizo ONODERA

On file 1344, Pembertons advise us on October 16th, 1942, that Mrs. Onodera has sold all her furniture and there will be no personal effects left on the premises.

From Mrs. Onodera's file, however, supplementary declaration on October 13th, it appears this is not so. Some of her belongings were left in the basement and signed for on October 28th 1942 by the tenant, Mrs. Peacock. She also signed for some articles belonging to Mr. Fumio Yamamoto, file 12035. 4

It will, therefore, be necessary to refer to files 9952 and 12035 when this property comes up for sale.

Linoleum

I have inspected the linoleum at the above address and found it so badly worn and torn through replacement by tenant of new linoleum that it is worthless and not worth removing to auction. The value would not justify the truck hire, so this linoleum has been left on the premises and abandoned.

Dear Sirs:

We are in receipt of your letter of November 24 regarding personal goods now in the hands of the Custodian.

When we left Vancouver, we had faith in the Custodian and left everything including our house and store in your hands trusting that you would look after it because we intended to return when things settled down. But as time goes on I'm beginning to lose faith in your commission. In the first place you go ahead and sell our house and then notify us, and now when it comes to a few bundles of pictures you notify us as to what is to be done with them. What kind of a commission are you running?

At the present we are experiencing an acute housing shortage, and we are renting rooms. We would appreciate it very much if you would sell the pictures and send us the amount of sale, as we have no room for them here.

We hope to hear from you soon regarding this matter.

Yours truly,

J. Onoda.
