NOV 30 1942

In regard to your letter of November 17, 1942, which states that the chattels listed at the residence of Mr. T. Kawanoto, I can identify some of the items as belonging to us, and they have been registered in my father's name, Tadayoshi Kawanoto - Reg. No. 04010.

However, a box of carpenter's tools is missing on the list.

I am enclosing a copy of the list presented to me, in which my father described the items.

Thanking you very much for your trouble,

Yours truly
T. Kawanoto

Dear Madam:

Re: Chattels

We thank you for your letter of November 27th with signed enclosure. We note that the chattels were registered by your father Mr. Chujiro Kawamoto. On his registration form your father does not declare any carpenters tools, but they may be among the effects which were left in custody of the Vancouver Cannery. Eventually a recheck will be made of all the goods found in Teshima's house, and the tools will probably be found there.

Yours truly,

H. F. Green,
Protection Department.
