Dear Sirs:

re: B. C. Fish Salteries Limited

The above referenced company has an account receivable on the books in the name of Yoshio Mori for an amount of $55.59. The ledger sheet indicates that this account has been running for some time and that during the early part of 1940 he received credits for wages which were overdrawn resulting in a debit balance of $60.05 at the end of May 1940. Since that date other charges have been made for disbursements to sundry companies on his behalf which, after recovering certain monies, leaves a balance of $55.59 at this date.

Would you kindly advise whether you are holding any funds on this man's behalf and if so what likelihood there is of collecting this account.

Yours faithfully,

10416.

Dear Sirs:

Re: Yoshio MORI - Reg. No. 11026.

In reply to your letter of the 23rd ultimo we have to advise that the file of the above evacuee, which was closed on the 3rd May, 1946, carries no evidence of any assets beyond a life insurance policy, on which there appear to be outstanding premiums.

We have no ledger account in this name and are not aware of his present address.

Yours truly,

R. G. Ball,
Office of the Custodian.
