RE: EDASURA Family
473 E. 6th Ave.

As it was impossible to identify and separate the chattels removed from the above address, everything recovered was sold in the name of Kanichiro EDASURA (File 12408).

Later it will be necessary to send copies of the auction lists to all claimants and ask them to sort out their own chattels.

Dear Sir and Madam:-

You will recall that the goods left on your property at 473 E. 6th Avenue included those of your brother Masao and his wife and also some articles belonging to Tokubei Masuda. We were not able to distinguish which effects belonged to the various owners since none of them were labelled but the total proceeds as per our enclosures have been provisionally credited to your account. Will you and your wife kindly contact your brother and his wife who are living at Lemon Creek and Mr. Tokubei Masuda who is at the same place, and mutually arrange what to do with the money. A letter signed by yourself, Mr. Masao Edamura, and Mr. Tokubei Masuda asking that the proceeds be paid to any one of you or divided in any other manner would be the best solution.

Yours truly,

H. F. Green
