Dear Sir,

I have a trunk and three cardboard boxes belonging to Mrs H. Takenaka, who worked for me for a great number of years before she was evacuated to Sandon B.C., and have a letter asking that these be sent on to her there, and believe that she has also written to you re same. I have no knowledge of the contents of these but believe they are personal belongings and she mentions a clock and a typewriter. The trunk is locked and I have not the key, but shall be glad to hear from you what to do as to the disposition of these things

Yours sincerely,

(Mrs) Kau L. Smith
