In reply to your letter of the 15th.
of Feb. 1946. you asked about information concerning Chattels, Insurance, and a debt owed by Mr. K. Kozuma. to Mr. T. Matsuyama and Co.

As Mr. Kozuma has lost his sight.
I, Henry Kojima, his son, am relaying the following information to you.

Mr. Kozuma #12226, claims that he has at present no chattels. that his life insurance has been used to pay personal debts and other expenses and that, the case of the debt to T. Matsuyama and Co.
is unclear, because the records of the case have been lost or destroyed during the evacuation.

Dear Sir:

Re: Kitsutaro KOZUMA, Reg. 12226

We thank you for yours of March 7th, and note your remarks re your father Kitsutaro KOZUMA, whose we regret to hear has lost his eye sight.

We find however, that your father has a credit on the Custodian's books of $47.24 representing the proceeds from the sale of chattels.

He had a Sun Life Insurance Policy which matured on July 31st, 1945 with a cash value of $751.47. We were not aware that this policy had been cashed, will you kindly advise us if this is so.

With reference to his debt of $275.17 to the T. MATSUYAMA Co., this company in the proof of claim state that they hold Mr. KOZUMA'S note for this debt.

Yours truly,

E. J. Iverson,

Mr. Henry Kojima,

Dear Sir:

Re: Kitsutaro Kojima, deceased.

We are in receipt of your letter of September 3rd in which you ask for some information in regard to the business which you say was conducted by your father, in partnership with Hajime Tsuchiya.

We take your statements to refer to your father's interest in the Salt Salmon Exporters of B.C. Ltd. In this connection an investigation of that company shows your father as being the holder of 80 shares and Tsuchiya of 100 shares out of a total of 1,880 shares of $10.- each. However, calls on these shares were only made for 25% of the share value and it is in this connection that the claim of $155.28 is made by the company for the balance owing against the 80 shares which were held by your father.

The company was inactive at the time it was investigated on behalf of the Custodian. There appeared to be no physical assets other than office furniture sold for approximately $50.--. The Cash in Bank and subsequent collections have provided for the payment of the debts of the company, but there will be no balance available for distribution to the estate of your father as a shareholder, as any distribution would be less than the indebtedness of $155.28 mentioned above.

With regard to the cheque for $27.24 which you returned, this was sent to you as we understood that you had paid additional expenses in connection with the funeral of your late father. We are again enclosing this cheque, but if for any reason you do not wish to accept same, this amount will then be paid over to the Department of Labour on account of their claim for funeral expenses.

Yours truly,

F. G. Shears,
Director.
