CHATEL SUMMARY

May 8th, 1947

Asakichi NAKAMURA,
Reg. No. 01735

Teruyo NAKAMURA,
Reg. No. 01739

On examination of File 679 we find that no chattels were declared by Asakichi NAKAMURA but his wife did declare a number of chattels. There is also evidence on the file that four other Japanese had belongings in 2342 Eton Street, owned by NAKAMURA. Their names are:-

Yosaku HORIUCHI - New Denver, B.C.

Tokizo TOGURI, Slocan City, B.C.

Powell Lumber & Fuel Co. Ltd. McGillivray Falls, B.C.

We also find that Mr. NAKAMURA was given permission to come to Vancouver and sort out his chattels and that of the other people mentioned above and corroborated by Mr. Spain's memorandum of November 18th, 1943 on file 679 also memorandum of Dec. 2/43.

This would appear to dispose of these chattels.

Chattels that remained at 2342 Eton St. after Mr. NAKAMURA had left, were sold at Auction and by private sale and credited to his account on our books.

The above Summary is certified to be in accordance with the information on file, May 8th, 1947.

Dear Sir:-

Re: Asakichi NAKAMURA--Reg. No. 01735

Confirming the conversation our Mr. Russell had with you the other day, we would request that the above Japanese, now at McGillivray Falls, be given permission to visit Vancouver for the purpose of identifying and disposing of the effects of four Japanese stored in the basement of his house at 2342 Eaton Street. This is one of the occasions where we consider the application of the Japanese justified and we are, therefore, prepared to recommend it in the interests of all parties concerned.

Yours truly,
