PERSONAL PROPERTY SUMMARY

File No. 10793

August 4, 1947.

Re: Hiroshi KAMITAKAHARA, Reg. No. 10286

This man signed a declaration to the Custodian on June 17, 1942. He was evacuated on June 23, 1942.

CHATELS

In his declaration he reported surgical and medical equipment stored at 214 Powell St., in the building owned by his uncle Dr. Kozo SHIMOTAKAHARA (File No. 11773.) Dr. KAMITAKAHARA states in his declaration that the equipment was left in the care of Mr. S. Gilmour, 410 Seymour St. However, in memo of October 13, 1942, in the file of Dr. SHIMOTAKAHARA, it is stated that "all at 210 Powell St. has been left in the care of Dr. Y. P. Lew, 416 Columbia St." This memo is signed by SHIMOTAKAHARA. A letter of acknowledgment, dated October 30, 1942, and signed by Lew, declared that surgical and medical equipment belonging to KAMITAKAHARA was in his care. Dr. Lew appears to be a Chinese dentist who occupied the upper floor at 216 Powell St. and who is now retired. On memo of February 4, 1944, it is noted by Mr. Spain that all chattels had been removed from the Powell St. building. The note is dated April 24, 1945. As there is no definite evidence on file as to the disposition of KAMITAKAHARA's equipment, a letter was written to Dr. Lew on July 25, 1947, requesting information as to the whereabouts of the equipment. Dr. Lew called at this office on August 2, 1947. He said that he knew nothing of KAMITAKAHARA's goods. Dr. Lew stated that SHIMOTAKAHARA had come to Vancouver to arrange for shipment of some of his chattels and that following his visit everything left had been removed to auction. As KAMITAKAHARA has never requested shipment of his surgical and medical equipment, it is presumed that SHIMOTAKAHARA shipped KAMITAKAHARA his equipment at that time.

In memo of February 14, 1944, in the file of SHIMOTAKAHARA, it is mentioned that on the Doctor's visit to Vancouver, he advised that a desk lamp and tri-light belonging to KAMITAKAHARA were missing from Powell St. These lamps had not been declared by KAMITAKAHARA and no action was taken in regard to their recovery.

MONIES OWING

KAMITAKAHARA reported outstanding book accounts which he stated he preferred to look after himself.

On December 2, 1946, Kozo INOUE (File No. 8907) requested the transferral of $30.00 from his account to the account of Dr. KAMITAKAHARA in payment of liability. The money was transferred on January 27, 1947, and remitted to KAMITAKAHARA on May 22, 1947.

LIFE INSURANCE

He reported two Life Insurance policies; one with the Monarch Life Insurance Company for $3,000.00, and one with the Manufacturers' Life Insurance Company for $1,000.00. These items were not brought under the control of the Custodian.

Although not mentioned in KAMITAKAHARA's declaration, this file reveals a North West Fire Insurance Company policy in the amount of $750.00, covering household effects at 1096 West 10th Ave. We were informed that this policy was about to expire and we wrote to KAMITAKAHARA on August 3, 1944, advising him that we were allowing the policy to expire because we had no evidence of chattels belonging to him being stored at 1096 West 10th Ave. No reply was received and the policy expired.

This file reveals no other property of any kind.

The file of Kay KAMITAKAHARA (File No. 10794) wife of this man, reveals no property and no liabilities.

This summary is certified to be in accordance with information on file.

MEMORANDUM

To: Mr. Wilson
From: Mr. Spain

RE: DR. KOZO SHIMOTAKAHARA
210 - 218 Powell Street

In reply to your memo of the 28th ultimo, the dental equipment has been removed to our warehouse at 604 East Cordova Street, and will be held there pending further instructions from you. This dental equipment is not the property of Dr. Shimotakahara but belongs to Dr. Saitaro Kagayama (File 13420). There was no difficulty in separating these articles because Dr. Shimotakahara on his last visit to Vancouver marked Dr. Kagayama's name on all the articles that belonged to the latter.

In the same building downstairs in 214 Powell Street, Dr. Shimotakahara stored a considerable quantity of chattels belonging to his son-in-law Dr. Kamitakahara (File 10793)

Before the keys to the premises are handed to Mr. Lin Kee, some steps will be necessary to protect Dr. Kamitakahara's chattels. I do not know who has the key to 214 Powell Street, probably Dr. Lew would have it.

In compliance with this request, we have today transferred to your account with this office the sum of $30.00, thus creating a credit balance of that amount.
