Registration No. 01153,

Dear Madam:

Re: Kamakichi MIYATA, Deceased.

Your late husband, Kamakichi MIYATA, declared no assets to the Custodian. We have, however, received the sum of $20.00 from the Canada Daily News, being payment of back wages, and this sum has been credited to your husband's account.

On June 3, 1942, a claim was filed against your husband for the sum of $9.00 by Mrs. Annie L. Payne, being rent for one-half month on the premises at 976 East Pender Street, Vancouver, which was occupied by you prior to your evacuation. We contacted the creditor and she has expressed her willingness to forego her claim in order that these funds may be released for your use.

A claim for the sum of $80.00 was filed against the Estate of your late husband by the Department of Labour to cover funeral expenses. However, in view of the small balance at credit, the Department of Labour have withdrawn their claim in order that this balance of $20.00 may be used for other purposes.

Custodian cheque for the sum of $20.00 is, accordingly, enclosed herewith. Kindly acknowledge receipt of this cheque.

Yours truly,

A. G. McArthur,
Office of the Custodian.
