Dear Sir:

Re: Credit in the sum of $177.35 for chattels left at 500-508 Cordova Street

I have received a communication from the National Japanese Canadian Citizens Association advising that it has received a request from Mr. Tadayoshi Sakamoto to assist him in determining the wishes of the following named persons whose chattel properties were stored on the property of Tadayoshi Sakamoto at 500-508 Cordova Street, Vancouver, B. C.

Since no identification is possible as to the ownership of the aforementioned chattel properties sold for which there is a credit of $177.35 in the Custodian's books, the undersigned find Mr. Sakamoto's proposal for the division of the said sum acceptable, believing that he has made every effort to be as fair as possible to all concerned respecting their properties.

I hereby agree to the proposal to payment and authorize you to pay to the following named persons the amounts indicated so as to close your books in respect of this account.

Dear Sir:

We enclose herewith our cheque in the amount of $16.77 which represents the total balance standing to the credit of your account. This is derived from the sale of your motor car, as we advised you in 1943, less a charge of $1.00 for storage and insurance on the radio which has since been shipped to you.

Your file reveals two claims filed against you by Mr. Ichiro NAKATSUKA, $252.00, and the Vancouver General Hospital, $11.55. As the funds standing to your credit are not sufficient to satisfy your creditors, we are advising the Vancouver General Hospital that we cannot pay their claim and giving them your address in the event that they might wish to contact you.

Kindly acknowledge receipt of this cheque.

Yours truly,

F. Matheson,
Office of the Custodian.

Dear Sir:

We are in receipt of your letter of the 23rd instant with lists mentioned therein indicating ownership of chattels left at the B. C. Rooms.

We are unable to reconcile these lists with the chattels removed from 500 E. Cordova St.

Auction lists showing proceeds of sale of all chattels recovered are enclosed herewith for your perusal. Please examine these auction sheets and advise us of the name of the owner in each instance.

On receipt of your advice, we will then credit the accounts of the rightful owners.

Dear Madam:

Your request, of January 24th, for the return of your radio has been received.

Radios, owned by persons residing outside the province of British Columbia are being released to the British Columbia Security Commission for shipment to the owners in cases where the owners have requested shipment. The expense of packing and shipping is borne by the owners.

The radio about which you inquired was, according to our records, turned in by Kametaro AKIYAMA, your father.
It would be necessary to establish the fact that this radio was your property, or to get your father's consent to the radio being shipped to you, before the Commission would make shipment.
It would also be necessary to send the receipt from the Royal Canadian Mounted Police in making the request for shipment.

We suggest that you, or your father, write the British Columbia Security Commission, sending the receipt from the police, and make request for shipment.

It is possible that the reason you have had no reply from the Royal Canadian Mounted Police is that they have no record of a radio owned by you.

Yours very truly,

F. Matheson,
Specified Articles Department.
