PERSONAL PROPERTY SUMMARY

File No. 11260

February 3, 1947

Re: Mitsuko TAKASHIMA, Reg. No. 06647

This woman signed a declaration to the Custodian on July 9, 1942. She was evacuated on September 10, 1942.

In her declaration Mrs. TAKASHIMA reported a quantity of chattels left at 1723 West 2nd Avenue, Vancouver. The disposition of the chattels found at this address is shown in the Chattel Schedule. Net proceeds from the sale of chattels were $49.43, which was credited to her account.

Mrs. TAKASHIMA reported 3 $5.00 War Savings Certificates and 3 Prudential Life Policies. These were all in the names of her three children. These were not brought under the control of the Custodian.

A camera was surrendered by Mrs. TAKASHIMA. This camera was sent to her by insured parcel post on January 25, 1947.

Mrs. TAKASHIMA reported a house and lot, 1723 West 2nd Avenue, Vancouver, which she stated was the property of her husband. This real property is dealt with in his file, File 11576.

This file reveals no other property of any kind.

FROM: Mr. Green

Re: Mr. & Mrs. Mitsuko TAKASHIMA

In his letter of October 19th on file 11576, Mr. J. L. Clark writes:

"One bedroom is locked up by the owners who have the key, the enclosed list, is what the room is supposed to contain, the small list is a few things left with the tenant to use, I checked this at the time they left, and had the tenant sign same."

No lists appear on this file presumably having been put on 11260, the wife's file, as the husband did not declare any furniture. These lists appear on the wife's file 11260 just behind Mr. Wilson's memorandum of December 17th and this seems to cover chattels reasonably satisfactorily on these two files.

Dear Madam:

Enclosed is Custodian cheque for the sum of $1.03, representing all the funds standing to your credit with this office.

The sum of $1.39 was credited to your account from the sale of chattels identified as your property. From this was deducted the postage and packing charge on your camera in the amount of 36 cents leaving $1.03 in your account. These are the funds which are being sent to you herewith.

No property identified as belonging to you now remains under the control of the Custodian. Your account with this office is therefore being closed.

Yours truly,

F. Matheson,
Office of the Custodian.

Dear Sir:

We received a letter from your office saying that our account at your office was closed. However, before you close it completely, we would like an itemized account of all our property sold by your office, giving the list of their selling prices, etc.

Also, we left about thirty or forty records at your office which we hope has not been sold yet, and we would like to have these if possible. These are mostly Japanese records, and as we cannot buy these now, we are anxious to have them back.

I hope you will be able to comply with our requests at your earliest convenience.

Very truly yours,

Dear Madam:

As requested in your letter of March 7th, we enclose lists of the chattels identified as your property and sold by this office.

In regard to the records about which you inquired, our records show that on November 2, 1943, the following goods were handed to the British Columbia Security Commission for shipment to you:

- 1 Gramophone and records
- 1 Roll of Linoleum
- 2 Crock

Records were not among the goods you reported ownership of in your declaration to the Custodian, and the records shipped to you were the only records of which this office had knowledge.
