Mr. Kinnosuke IWASAKI,
Registration No. 03219,
Sandon, B. C.

Dear Sir:

According to information supplied by you to this office, you were a fisherman, self-employed.

That being the case, we assume that you were the owner of a fishing vessel. However, you did not declare ownership of a vessel of any kind. In case this was an oversight on your part, we are writing to ask for a description of your fishing vessel, and the license number and port of registry.

It is possible that you had disposed of your boat before leaving the protected area.

If we do not hear from you to the contrary, we shall assume that you did not own a boat at the time you registered with this office; that is, July 15, 1942.

Yours very truly,

F. Matheson,
Specified Articles Department.

Dear Sir:

This is to advise that the fishing vessel "K.I." V.060-H was sold for the sum of $180.00; this being the value placed on her by an experienced marine surveyor.

As the Anglo-British Columbia Packing Co. Ltd. held a mortgage on this vessel, of which there was due a balance of $180.84, the monies received from the sale have been used to satisfy this mortgage.

Yours very truly,

F. Matheson,
Specified Articles Department.
