Mr. and Mrs. Risaburo SHIBATA,
Reg. Nos. 01648, and 01831,
Slocan, B. C.

Dear Sir and Madam:

Re: Chattels removed from Fairview Buddhist
Church, 715 W. 7th Ave., Vancouver, B. C.

Your files have been examined and it is found that both of you declared that you owned no property of any kind whatsoever in the protected area of British Columbia. Apparently, however, the following goods were found tagged with the name of Risaburo SHIBATA and sold by auction, and the net proceeds in the amount of $14.72 credited to this account:

Chest of Drawers
Heater Stand
Crockery
Buffet

Cash Box
Box & Contents
Chest of Drawers

If any of these goods are not yours, kindly let us know.

It is unfortunate that you failed to take advantage of your opportunity to declare the goods now claimed by you, as at this date it is improbable that these can be traced. There was, however, a small quantity of goods found in 715 West 7th Avenue and sold at auction which have not yet been identified. If among your boxes there were articles of any particular value you might list them and if any can be identified this office will do what it can to allocate the proceeds to your account.

Yours truly,

A. G. McArthur,
