Dear Sir:

Your letter of the above date has been referred to the undersigned for attention.

In compliance with your request, we are enclosing a premium notice on the above insurance. The annual payment of $11.75 was due last March; consequently, the policy lapsed.

In the insured is desirous of reinstating the policy, it will be necessary for him to complete the enclosed form where indicated by the checkmarks. The signature must be witnessed by a disinterested adult. The form must be returned, together with the amount of $9.50, which will pay the arrears from March 22, 1943, to December 13, 1943, plus the annual remittance of $11.75, which will advance the date of last payment to December 11, 1944. A total remittance of $21.25 is needed to reinstate the policy.

Yours truly,

D. Cubbon

Dear Madam:

Re: Prudential Pol. #10980429

We have received a copy of your letter addressed to the Prudential Insurance Company in which you have asked them to write to us for $11.75, which amount I understand will be required to pay premiums under the above numbered policy for 47 weeks.

You have no funds standing to your credit with the Custodian; but we note that your husband has a balance of $1,445.70. If he wishes us to pay your premiums for you from his account, will you ask him to send us the necessary authority by return mail.

Yours truly,
