Dear Sir:

In regards to the reference of file No. 11674, have received a letter asking for payment on my debts to Medical Clinic and Dr. Hori, the total sum of ninety seven dollars and fifty cents.

As being very scarce in the interior town and at present I am not employed in any position. So what with the earnings of father we have to eat and clothes ourselves.

As much as I like to clear my debts, am unable to make any payments for the duration of the war. But if chance permits will be willing to send whatever amount we could afford to.

Sincerely yours,
Murray Gault
