Dear Sir:

Re: Income Tax Refunds.

We have received from the Commissioner of Income Tax a cheque for $9.80 in your favour, representing refund of excess tax deduction made at source (1943-44).

This money has been credited to your account, against which H. Furuya Co. have registered a claim of $2.45 "Balance Brought Forward". This is the only claim registered against you and if you will either (1) authorize us to pay it, if correct, or, (2) state wherein it is incorrect, we shall be in a position to remit you the balance of your account.

Yours truly,

R. G. Bell,

Dear Sirs:

re: Ukichi HAMAMOTO
Reg. No. 05376

With reference to your claim of $2.45 against the above named. We wrote to him and he replied as follows:-

"Now I understand that the M. Furuya Co. has registered a claim of $2.45 against me which I have no knowledge of ever owing. Just before I evacuated from Vancouver I went to the M. Furuya Co. many times to shop and it seems strange to me why they did not ask for the payment of the bill then if such was the case. They were such similar cases here in this camp before from this same company in which they could not understand how such mistakes were brought about and I also am very puzzled of their negligence. I am in a disad-vantage as others have been from this concern because of not having kept receipts, but I assure you that I do not owe this company any money."

We would be glad to have your comments with regard to HAMAMOTO'S statement. If we do not hear from you within the next two weeks, we will assume that you agree with him that the account has been paid.

Yours truly,

We have not heard from them and we are, therefore, assuming that your statement is correct. Under these circumstances we are enclosing our cheque No. 9601 for $9.80, which represents the refund of excess tax deductions. This is the only credit which you had with the Custodian.
