Dear Sir:

We received your letter ~~and the three claims are correct~~

Fifteen years ago we had a store.
We borrowed this merchandise from these people. In 1931 my mother was sick and she was confined to bed for six months.

Business became poor and we had to close the store so we couldn't pay it back then.
But there's lots of our friends who owe us money when we were in business that time. And we knew they wouldn't pay us back so we left it alone.

It's impossible to pay them back now.

Yours Truly,
Thengar

Dear Sirs:

Re: Tsunetaro EBISUZAKI

With reference to the claims filed by you, against the above named, on the 21st of May, 1942.

We have just heard from him, and while acknowledging the claims of Drs. Turnbull, Schinbein and Morse as correct, he states that he is quite unable to make any payment, at the present time, but if funds become available he will try and make a settlement.

We might add that as far as this office is aware, he has very few assets; the principal one being an $1800.00 life insurance policy. As he has more than this amount of claims outstanding against him, the chances of the claimants being paid in full are not very good.

Yours truly,

A. McAlister,
Claims Department.
