Dear Sir:

I have received a cheque of ninety-eight dollars ($98.00) covering my funds at your office.

As mentioned in your letter of Oct. 9., furniture belonging to me could not be identified due to the fact that I have not given you adequate details concerning it, but this matter I will settle with Mr. Torichiro Nakai. Also, I have found that fishing net (6½ inch mesh) ~~was included~~ which belonged to me was included in the list of Mr. Nakai. If this net is sold, will you send the proceed to Mr. Nakai.

I will ~~appreciate~~ ^{please} ~~your~~ ^{attend} to this matter.

Mr. Yoshikazu IKEBATA,
Registration No. 03387,
R. R. #3,
KELOWNA, B. C.

Dear Sir:

As requested by you, we enclose Custodian cheque in the amount of $98.00, representing all funds standing to your credit with this office.

Your file has been reviewed, and it is noted that, although you were evacuated from the protected area on March 5, 1942, you did not sign a declaration to the Custodian until September 26, 1942.

In September, 1942, prior to the date of your declaration, three lead lines, one cork line and extra corks were sold with your approval for the sum of $61.00, which was paid in to this office and credited to your account.

In your declaration of September 26, 1942, you stated that you were the owner of three nets, an engine and some furniture. Of these items only one net and the engine could be found at the time your declaration was received. The net and engine were sold and the net proceeds of the sale, $142.76, were credited to your account.

Your furniture, according to your declaration, was stored at Nakai's house in Steveston. This, we understand, was the house of Teichiro NAKAI. This house was vacant after the evacuation of the owner, and on August 7, 1942, all contents were removed to the Custodian warehouse. The articles removed were later sold and a list of the articles sold was sent to Teichiro NAKAI, who has asked that the proceeds of the sale be sent to him. He has not indicated that any of these articles belonged to you, and as none of these carried any identification to show that they were your property, and you have not given us details in regard to the furniture you left in this house, we must assume that none of your effects were in the house when the contents were moved.

On February 2, 1943, you reported that you had left 7 cords of firewood at Colonial Cannery's wharf. Upon receipt of this information this office investigated but your firewood was not there. We informed you that the wood could not be found in letter of March 1, 1943.

On August 9, 1943, you requested that a number of articles that you stated had been left at Nakai's store be sent to you. This office investigated but none of the articles listed in your letter could be found.

Mr. Yoshikazu IKEBATA

October 9, 1945.

It is regrettable that many articles, reported by you as having been left in the protected area, have not been traced. It must be pointed out, however, that over seven months elapsed before you reported to the Custodian that you owned any property in this area, while over a year had passed after the date of your evacuation before other chattels were reported. The Custodian could not offer protection to chattels of whose existence he had no record.

According to information supplied to this office the fishing vessel "Y.I.", New Westminster Licence 1672, was sold by you through the Japanese Fishing Vessels Disposal Committee and the net proceeds of the sale, $826.20, was paid to you through your attorney, Mr. U. Sakamoto, on June 9, 1942.

The claim for the sum of $95.00, filed by you against Mr. Umajiro HAMAMOTO, was paid on July 7, 1945, and this sum was credited to your account in this office.

While Mr. Kazuichi SHIMOZANA has admitted the correctness of your claim for $135.00, he has stated that he is unable to settle this claim. This man's liabilities total more than $700.00, and his credit balance with this office amounts to only $52.00. In the event of his credit balance being used to settle his liabilities on a pro rata basis, settlement of your claim would be in the sum of around $9.00. Unless we hear from you or Mr. SHIMOZANA asking that settlement on that basis be made, we will take no further action in regard to this. If you wish to write this man, his present address is, c/o Canadian Pacific Railway, Penticton Division.

Refund of Security Deposit in the amount of $3.00 was received from the British Columbia Electric Railway Co. and credited to your account.

On March 24, 1943, premium and interest on your insurance policy was paid through this office at your request, and on July 20, 1944, a cheque for $207.42, payable to yourself and your wife, which had been received in this office from the Manufacturers Life Insurance Co., and represented the surrender value of your policy, was sent to you.

The War Saving Certificate and Safety Deposit Box which you declared did not come under the control of this office.

A statement of your account, covering the period from August 4, 1943, up to date is enclosed. This shows a credit balance at this time of $98.00, which is covered by the enclosed cheque.

12141

Mr. Yoshikazu IKEBATA

-3-

October 9, 1945.

It is felt that we have accounted for all property of every kind left by you in the protected area which vested in the Custodian, and in order that you may confirm this and acknowledge the enclosed cheque, we attach a stamped, addressed envelope for your convenience in replying.

Yours truly,

JM

CHATELS SUMMARY

File No. 12141

October 8, 1945

Re: Yoshikazu IKEBATA #03387

This person was evacuated on March 5, 1942, but it was not until September 26, 1942, that he signed a declaration to the Custodian in regard to his property.

In his declaration of September 26, 1942, he stated that he owned three nets, an engine and "some furniture at Nakai's house, Steveston". No detailed report in regard to his furniture appears on this file.

The house at which this man claimed to leave his furniture -- that of Toichiro NAKAI, File 5373, was vacant, and on August 7, 1942, all contents found (at that date) in the house were moved to Warehouse #3. Prior to this the house had been broken into and evidently a quantity of goods was stolen.

On the file of Toichiro NAKAI, there is a fairly long inventory of goods. This inventory was taken by J. D. Mather on July 22, 1942. The articles removed from this house were taken to be the property of Toichiro NAKAI, and those that were sold were credited to his account, and a report showing the items sold was sent to him. On June 5, 1945, Toichiro NAKAI asked that the proceeds of the sale be sent to him, and in his letter he lists all the items sold. From this it would appear that he claims ownership of all these articles.

At various times, as shown in the Chateles Schedule, Yoshikazu IKEBATA reported fishing gear, firewood and tools. Of all the chattels reported by this man, the following were found and disposed of:

At Colonial Net Loft: One 7 inch net, 150 fathoms- sold October 24, 1942, for $80.00, and this sum credited to account.

One Atlas Imperial Gas Engine - appraised at $75.00 by John Gould, sold June 7, 1943, for $70.00 - Expenses $7.24, balance credited to account - $62.76.

One anchor- sold December 1, 1942 for $1.50, which was credited to account.

Boxes of gear (number of boxes not given) and a tank were found to be of no value and were abandoned.

Three sets of lead line, one set of cork line and extra corks were sold by Yoshikazu IKEBATA, and the funds were paid to this office. These were not reported until after the sale. The proceeds of this sale $61.00 were credited to his account, September 3, 1942.

The fact that these chattels were reported to this office so long after the owner was evacuated, and that, in the case of his furniture, no definite information was ever supplied, did not give this office very much to work on in giving protection to his effects.

The above summary is certified to be in accordance with information on file.
