Dear Sir:

Re ENOMOTO, Kurino
(Mrs. Masahiko)

On the 3rd inst. we addressed a circular letter to you with reference to Mrs. Enomoto whose chattels were left at 510 Keefer Street. According to her Declaration, it was her intention to leave these articles in your care and for this reason we requested you to acknowledge that you were prepared to care for such of her personal property and accept the responsibility for same during her absence.

We are without any reply from you and, for the purpose of our record, we should appreciate your acknowledgment by signing and returning to us the list mailed to you on October 3rd.

Your co-operation will be appreciated.

Yours truly,

Dear Sir:
As the above 510 Keefer St is a Rooming house
And I do not live there, I do not feel I should be held responsible for what ever may have been left there by Mrs Enomoto - even though I have the key for the room in which the articles have been left and do not know what the packages contain never having seen the contents, personally I would feel better if you removed the articles to some of your warehouses.
Yours truly
C. E. Mahon
