Although the chattels sold and credited to Mrs. FUKUMOTO tally very well with those she declared, she advised Mr. Good on May 16/46 that she did not know the source of her credit balance as she had brought all her belongings with her when she left the Coast. In that case it would appear that these goods have been incorrectly credited to her and we are therefore transferring them to Chattel Suspense Account.

No property interests other than those mentioned above are found on this file.

The above Schedule and Summary is certified to be in accordance with the information on file.

RE: Kiyo (Mrs. Ichitaro) FUKUMOTO
Reg. No. 07652

Will you please transfer from the account of Mrs. FUKUMOTO, File 12563, to Chattel Suspense Account, the proceeds of Vancouver auctions Nos. 2 and 58. Although these goods do tally very closely with goods declared by Mrs. FUKUMOTO, she advised Mr. Good on May 16/46 that she did not know the source of her credit with the Custodian as she brought all her belongings with her when she left the Coast. In view of this statement it would appear that these goods have been incorrectly credited to Mrs. SUKUMOTO.

Mrs. Kiyō FUKUMOTO,
Reg. No. 07652,
LEMON CREEK, B.C.

Dear Madam:

We are in receipt of advice from our representative who was recently on a visit to Lemon Creek. He informs us that you do not know the source of your credit of $15.45.

We have investigated and find that you were given credit for certain chattels removed from 128-130 West 4th Ave., as per auction sheets enclosed. There was considerable difficulty in separating the ownership of the chattels at that address due to the absence of identification marks.

If these chattels were not yours, who did they belong to? Please advise us promptly by return mail.

Yours truly,

G. B. Spain
