16th December, 1942.

Mr. Denbei KOBAYASHI,
Okanagan Center, B. C.

Dear Sir:

Please be good enough to provide us with confirmation of the spelling of your full name, with your police registration number and with the full names, ages and police registration numbers, if any, of each member of your family, and confirm to us statement with which we have been provided to the effect that you and the members of your family have been residing in the Okanagan Center for a number of years.

This information is desired by the Custodian's office for the completion of our files in connection with a survey we are making of all individuals of the Japanese race who were not living in the protected area and whose affairs in the protected area, in consequence, do not vest in the Custodian.

Yours truly,

R. P. Alexander
Manager
