Dear Madam:-

An I. Ikeda wrote to the Crone Storage Company in November 1942, and asked for a sewing machine stored with them. We are having difficulty in tracing this person's identity and request you to inform us if you are the party.

Due to one of their warehouse men being ill, Crone Storage Company are unable to locate this machine and have so advised us. We will keep after this matter but require the above information before taking any further steps. Would you kindly, on receipt of this letter, advise us promptly?

Yours truly,
