Dear Sir:

In answer to yours I wish to state that Mr. Hajime Yasusaka injured his head and due to his mental condition, his friends were going to take him to Japan. That is the last I heard of him.

As for Mr. H. Ryomoto, he took his children back to Japan after his wife's death.

Mr. Sam Oki died of Diabetes and Pneumonia about one year ago. As for the whereabouts of his wife, I cannot say.

Mrs. Sueki Tanizaki is the correct name and the address I have is Powell River, B.C.

Hoping this will answer yours.

Yours truly,

(Signed) Dr. Uchida

Dear Sir:

Re: Sueki TANAZAKI

This office has received a request from the Vancouver General Hospital to trace the above named man.

His wife was a patient in the Hospital on the 17th February, 1935, and you were the attending Doctor. It shows that the husband was a logger, employed by Mr. Nakane, Powell River.

Our files have no record of this party and we would appreciate any information you could supply us with, such as correct name and present address, that would help us in tracing him.

Yours truly,

A. McAlister,
Claims Department.
