Dear Madam:

We have brought forward your personal file and account for review in order that we may report on your affairs coming under our control.

We have written a letter to Yomishi Kato and you jointly today reporting in respect to your interests in 2584 Oxford Street, property. With that letter we are forwarding our cheque for $1,670.55 payable to you and Yomishi Kato so that you will have the final amount coming to you from this property. Accompanying the letter and cheque is a General Statement of the Joint Account and a sales statement re Oxford Street property for each of you.

The review of your personal file discloses that your personal Chattels left at 2584 Oxford Street have become mixed with those of Gunji Nakamachi. As long ago as November, 1945, we wrote to you in an endeavour to clarify the ownership of these Chattels, sending you the Auction sheets covering the Sales of same. We do not seem to have received any reply to our November and subsequent letters and do not appear to have received any co-operation in our efforts to make a proper segregation of these articles.

It is noted too that you have returned our cheque for $35.34 which was the net proceeds of the sale of your Radio when made at public auction. This return was made in your letter of the 20th May, last.

Pending adjustments we are holding proceeds of Chattels and Radio.

We shall be obliged for your acknowledgment.

Yours truly,

B. R. Dusenbury,

Re: Chattels on above files

In his declaration of April 28, 1942, to the Custodian, Gunji NAKAMACHI, File 6526, reported effects left at 2584 Oxford St. These premises were occupied by Miss Hisa KATO, Fuke 12961, who also reported chattels left at that address. Mr. Green's memo of March 25, 1944, on file 6526 states that all the contents at 2584 Oxford St. were moved to storage in the name of Gunji NAKAMACHI. Due to the similarity of names, these effects became mixed in the warehouse and during the sale with those of Mr. and Mrs. Tomejiro NAKA, Files 12829 and Xl 1209. The goods were sold for the total net sum of $174.93 at Vancouver Auctions 49, 50, and 54.

In order that these funds could be credited to the correct persons, the parties concerned were sent a list of the goods sold with the request that they identify the articles belonging to them. However, as we have been unable to obtain from the persons concerned the information required to identify ownership, the proceeds of the goods sold in the name of Gunji NAKAMACHI at Vancouver Auctions 49, 50, and 54 have been transferred in whole to Chattel Suspense.

Reg. No. 01077

Hisa Kato,Reg. No.10284 and Gunji NAKAMICHI, Reg. No. 02606 left chattels at the above address. These were inventoried by a representative of the Custodian and finally taken to warehouse at 992 Powell Street. Here they were in some manner mixed with the chattels of Tomijiro NAKA, Reg. No. 01077 and sold at auction. It would appear from the examination of the three files that the chattels of NAKA which were mixed with KATO and NAKAMICHI were those finally put in Suspense Account G. 181. The chattels from 2584 Oxford Street belonging to both KATO and NAKAMICHI were sold and credited to the account of NAKAMICHI. The chattel proceeds in both NAKA's and NAKAMICHI's account are now"frozen".

Auction sheets were sent to the three Japanese in question and only the wife of NAKA replied stating that the items thereon were all their's. An inventory of chattels taken from 2584 Oxford Street was also sent to NAKAMICHI and he returned it signed as belonging to him. Miss KATO did not reply until upon our sending her the funds received from a radio, returned our cheque stating that she was dissatisfied with everything we had done and that the items on our list did not cover her full list of chattels.

Our only course would seem to be to either divide the combined proceeds according to the declarations, or to put the entire proceeds in Suspense Account.

With regard to Miss KATO's chattels we are endeavouring to credit her with the proceeds of those items we can more or less identify as being hers according to her declaration.

It is quite possible that some of the items in G.181 Suspense may belong to Miss KATO or NAKAMICHI and also some of the items credited to the account of NAKA. Mrs. Robertson will probably adjust this matter as well as she can. As we cannot definitely identify them, putting them in Suspense account en bloc, would seem to be the best solution.

The above Summary is certified to be in accordance with the information on file, October 24th, 1947.
